President

Karen Grethlein

"I choose NAWIC because I have developed some of the strongest and most enduring friendships of my life with women across different disciplines and experiences in the construction industry. NAWIC to me is a safe space where I can learn, be challenged, and grow as a leader with a group of truly exceptional women. I also choose NAWIC for all the work it does in promoting the education of young women and girls and demonstrating to them how many viable and rewarding career paths exist in the construction industry."
